- Basic equipment includes a uniform, shinguards, and tennis shoes or cleated soccer shoes.

Referee:

- One Registered Referee.
- All rule infractions shall be briefly explained to the offending player.

Duration of the Game:

- The game shall be divided into four equal quarters of 15 minutes each.

Start or Restart of the Game:

- Both teams must be on their half of the field to begin the game.

- A kick-off is used to start a game or second half, or after a goal is scored.
- A kick-off is a direct kick which must be initially kicked forward.
- A kicker who touches the ball first during the kick-off may not touch the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.
- Opponent must be five yards from the center mark while the kick off is in progress.

Ball In and Out Of Play:

- The ball is out of play if it completely crosses the goal end line or touch line, or if the referee stops the play.
- The ball is in play all other times when remaining in the field of play.

Method of Scoring:

- A goal is scored when the whole ball passes over the goal line, between the goalposts and under the crossbar.
- The team with the most goals wins. A tying score ends in a draw.

Off-Side:

- None.

Misconduct:

- Only a player or substitute may be shown a red or yellow card.
- A player is cautioned and shown a yellow card if he/she is guilty of unsporting behavior, shows dissent by word or action, persistently infringes the laws of the game, delays the restart of a game, fails to respect the required distance when play is restarted, enters or re-enters the game without the referees approval, or deliberately leaves the field without the referees approval.
- Players issued a yellow card must be substituted by another player.
- A player is sent off and shown a red card if he/she is guilty of a serious foul play, guilty of violent conduct, spits at an opponent or any other person, denies the opposing team an obvious goal scoring opportunity by deliberately handballing the ball or by an offense punishable to a free kick or penalty kick, uses offensive, insulting, or abusive language or gestures, or if a player receives a second caution in the same match.
- In the event of a red card, the player must leave the vicinity of the field of play and the technical area.

Free Kicks:

- A player may receive either a direct or indirect kick and must be taken where the foul occurred. The ball must be stationary, and the player cannot touch the ball twice in a row without another player touching the ball.
- In the case of either a direct or indirect kick, the opposing team must stand at least five yards away from the ball.

- A direct kick is awarded to the opposing team if a player commits a careless, reckless act, or uses excessive force.
- An indirect kick is awarded to the opposing team if a goalie, inside his/her own penalty box commits a foul, or if a player plays in a dangerous manner.
- A direct kick is put into play once one player touches the ball.
- An indirect kick cannot be scored unless two players touch the ball before entering the goal or if the ball goes out of play.

Penalty Kicks:

- A penalty kick is awarded to a team if a player on the opposing team commits a foul worthy of a direct kick in their own defensive box.
- A penalty kick is a direct kick with all players, with the exception of the goalie, standing outside the box and five yards away from the player who is kicking the ball.
- The penalty kick is taken halfway between the goalie box and the penalty box.
- The defending goalie must remain on the goal line, and between the goalposts until the ball is kicked.
- A player taking the penalty kick cannot kick the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.

Throw-in:

- A throw-in is awarded if the ball passes over the touch lines on either side of the field. The throw must be taken from where the ball went out of play and is taken by the team in which their opponents touched the ball last before going out of play.
- A throw must be taken facing the field, part of each foot on the ground, outside the touch line, using both hands, and delivering the ball over and directly behind their head.
- A same player throwing the ball in play cannot touch the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.
- A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in.

Goalie Punts and Drop Kicks:

- Any goalie punt that crosses the center line on a fly will result in an indirect kick from the spot where the ball crossed the center line. This includes a goalie's drop kick.

Goal Kick:

- A goal kick is awarded if the ball, having last touched by the opposing team, passes over the goal line with the exception of if a goal is scored.
- A goal kick is taken within the goal area by a player or goalie of the defending team.
- Opponents must remain outside the penalty area until the ball is in play, and kicked outside the penalty area.
- A player taking the goal kick cannot touch the ball a second time until it is touched by another player.

Corner Kick:

- A corner kick is awarded when the whole ball, having last been touched by the defending team, passes over the goal line and a goal is not scored.
- The ball is placed next to the nearest corner flag without removing the flag, and is kicked by a player on the attacking team.
- Opponents must remain ten yards away from the ball until it is in play.
- A ball is in play once it is kicked or moved, and the player taking the corner kick may not touch the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.
